

2 named to Delta College dean's list

Two area students were named to the Delta College dean's list for the 1986 fall semester.

Nancy L. Russell, 4201

Canboro Rd., Owendale, and Gary T. Rudy, 3801 Cumber Rd., Ubyly, both had a 3.5 grade point average or above and carried 12 credits or more to qualify for the dean's list.

There were 535 students in all that made it on the fall semester list.

Fred and Kathy Sullivan showed slides of their trip to Ireland and displayed souvenirs to an audience of about 25 persons in St.

Agatha Church Hall on St. Patrick's Day. One prized souvenir shown was a hand-made lace bridal veil. The first family bride to wear the veil was Robin Sullivan who was married last July. Marsha Potter of Grand Rapids spent last weekend with her parents, Agatha and Murl LaFave.

Sadie Tait of Caro and Gerry Carolan were overnight guests of Mrs. Mary Carolan of Bay City last Sunday. On their return home Monday they visited Mrs. Harlan Hobart at Tuscola County Medical Care Facility in Caro.

Girl Scout Troop #874, under the leadership of Faith Fahrner and Nancy Rolston, visited the Gagetown Senior Manor and each scout adopted a resident grandparent.

Monday, March 23, Agatha LaFave attended the kick-off dinner for the 1987 Huron County Cancer Drive at the Methodist Church in Bad Axe.

Frank Rocheleau of Caro was a patient at Caro Community Hospital. Velma Helwig visited him Thursday.

Ann and Mary Lenhard of Saginaw spent last Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lenhard.

Harry Comment was released from the hospital and is recuperating at home in St. Petersburg, Fla.

Jim and Nancy Rabideau, Harlan and Phyllis Rabideau, Keith and Norma Rabideau and their daughter and son-in-law attended the wedding of Miss Joan Marecki and David Goldsworthy. The bride is the daughter of Jean and C.A. Marecki of Rochester and the wedding took place at St. John Fischer Chapel with reception immediately following at the Rochester Community House.

Mrs. Elma Miklovich joined her grandchildren, Trisha Roth, Kathy Hawk and Todd, for dinner in Bay City last Saturday.

Roads safer with speed limit 55

The battle still rages in Washington about whether or not the speed limit should be raised from 55 mph to 65 mph on rural highways. President Ronald Reagan vetoed the highway bill last week because of the private projects some senators tacked on to the bill. White House officials are saying that they think the senate will override Reagan's veto and the bill will go into effect.

Esther Proctor, 57, 4619 North VanDyke Rd., hopes the bill stays defeated. "It's just like the liquor law. If we sell it (liquor) to 18-year-olds, then 16-year-olds will get it. If we increase the speed limit to 65, everyone will go 75. It's human nature," said Proctor.

Proctor added that she thought it would be fine if everyone did drive 65 mph but feels that most people won't. She said that automobile related deaths will go up. "When we cut back (on the speed limit) it (the death rate) went down," she said.

Proctor thinks it is a good possibility that the senate will override Reagan's veto because of all the problems his administration has been having lately.

Proctor and her husband have only been Cass City residents since March 1, when they moved from Harbor Beach to take over as the pastors of the Mizpah Church. Proctor said the church is a missionary denomination and there are 3 missionary churches in the area.

Proctor and her husband lived in Harbor Beach for 8 years until he retired on Jan. 3. The next day he was offered a job at the Cass City church. She is originally from Port Hope.
